

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Baltimore City Workforce Investment Board (BWIB) acting by and through the Mayor's Office of Employment Development (MOED) invites interested training service providers to submit proposals to provide occupational skills training to ex-offenders who register at the Re-entry Center at the Northwest One-Stop Career Center. Qualified organizations will provide occupational skills training in high growth and offender friendly industries that have a high potential for employment and job retention. In addition to measurable outcomes, the training must include program mechanisms designed to provide job search and job retention assistance to the program's participants.

The expected term for the contract(s) to be awarded under this solicitation will be one (1) year commencing on or about April 1, 2008. The MOED is an EEO/ADA/OSHA/MOSHA/EPA compliant organization and all responsive applicants must also comply with the aforementioned requirements.

A bidder's conference will be held on Monday, October 29, 2007 at 9:00 a.m. at the Re-entry Center @ the Northwest Career Center, 2401 Liberty Heights Avenue, Mondawmin Mall, Suite 302.

Interested parties may contact MOED at 417 E. Fayette Street, Suite 468 or by phone at (410) 396-1910, to obtain a copy of the Request for Proposal. Copies are also available through the website at www.oedworks.com. Deadline for submission of proposals is November 26, 2007 by 1:00 p.m.
