

AD FOR REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS(RFP)
BALTIMORE CITY YOUTH COUNCIL
For
THE WORKFORCE INVESTMENT BOARD

The Baltimore City Workforce Investment Board Youth Council acting by and through the Baltimore City Mayor's Office of Employment Development (MOED) is requesting proposals to select vendors for workforce development services. The mission of the Youth Council is to integrate services to insure youth are educated, have productive careers and become responsible family members and citizens. Target population for this RFP is youth ages 16-21. Services may include job placement and preparation, alternative learning options leading to a high school diploma, career specific training and certification leading to employment and increased literacy and numeracy skills.

All organizations are encouraged to attend a Bidders Conference to be held on Wednesday, September 19, 2007 at 1:30 p.m., 101 W. 24th Street, Room 100 to obtain information pertinent for proposal submission. Please fax or e-mail all questions or concerns prior to the conference, 410.467.7869 (fax) or youthcareers@oedworks.com . RFP will be posted on the MOED website, www.oedworks.com by September 14, 2007.
